WORKINGTON TRANSPORT HERITAGE
TRUST

Preserving, restoring and operating West
Cumbria's road
transport heritage

What Do We Do?

Working from premises in Workington, we preserve, restore, operate and display locally important road transport vehicles.

This includes buses built by Leyland at their Lillyhall factory, or operated by Cumberland Motor Services and Stagecoach. More recent vehicles include low floor buses.

Our volunteers gain experience in maintaining our buses and collections of archives & spares.

A selection of our vehicles and our sales stand can be seen out and about throughout the year at a number of events in the county.

How can you help?

- Join the Trust. Adult rate is a bargain £15 a year, for which you receive a quarterly colour newsletter and the chance to volunteer.
- Visit our shop on Workington railway station. This is normally open Mons-Sats 9am-2pm – buy a drink or chocolate bar, or book a day trip.
- Come along to events to see our vehicles and sales stand. Look out for us at Distington, Silloth, Kirkby Stephen and other shows.
- Win up to £25,000 by supporting our cause in Allerdale's local lottery. More at www.allerdalelottery.com
- Travel on one of our free heritage bus services, such as our Boxing Day service or free park & ride at Keswick and Cockermouth shows.
- Support our day trips by coach – look for details at our website or Facebook page.

Coach Day Trips

We use our comfy touring coach for outings to locations including Bury, Beamish, Blackpool, Skipton and York.

These now start in early Spring and run through to December. Pick up a leaflet at our shop on Workington railway station or see our website at www.wht.co.uk

Friends of Workington Station

Some of our green fingered members work to enhance the appearance of our local railway station.

New flower beds, hanging baskets, heritage signs, repainting, and minor maintenance are done to create a flavour of London Midland & Scottish Railway days.

One day I'll drive this bus! Ex Barrow National CEO 720W.
